SAVE THE DATES!

Body Peace is a first-of-its-kind virtual body image and Eating Disorders conference. This year's theme, Lived Experience Is Evidence Too, will highlight lived experience, not only in survivors but in caregivers and health professionals.

This event will feature panel discussions, keynote speakers, live chats and more! The three areas of focus are innovation, representation, and collaboration.

ABOUT THE ORGANIZERS

Non-profits Body Brave (bodybrave.ca), National Initiative for Eating Disorders (NIED.ca), along with Annina Schmid Counselling (substanceusecounselling.com) have teamed up to bring you Body Peace.
